Hiring: Instructor, for CUSLAR’s Hola, Amigos! Spanish through Play
CUSLAR, the Committee on U.S.-Latin American Relations, works for peace, justice and greater mutual understanding in U.S.-Latin American relations. Spanish language classes for families in the Ithaca, NY area are a central part of our educational mission. Our Hola Amigos! Program integrates age-appropriate language learning with songs, art and play for children ages 4-12 years old.

Job Description
CUSLAR seeks a Spanish language instructor for beginning-level "Hola, Amigos!" classes for the Winter 2023-24 session, to be held in downtown Ithaca or at Cornell University. This position will be contracted for a six-week session, from January to February 2024, with post-class evaluation and strong potential to continue into spring and fall sessions. Candidates should be available to prepare and teach 1-2 daytime classes of 50 minutes each, either in the late morning or late afternoon, as well as Saturday mornings.

The instructor will be provided with materials developed in previous years, limited mentorship by the previous instructor, and will be encouraged to develop additional curriculum as needed.

Qualifications
-Candidate must have experience teaching Spanish and have skills to prepare curriculum and teach in a group setting, especially with children 4-12 years old.
-Candidate should be a native or near native speaker of the Spanish Language.
-Candidate should be able to incorporate diverse pedagogical techniques, engage children in age-appropriate ways, involve parents or caretakers in learning, and be excited to play!

Compensation
Pay scale ranges from $17 to $25 an hour. Pay is determined by and commensurate with experience. This is a part-time contract position with no benefits.
